- Airline (Kobe)

  - This class, airline, will be the main class that manages the entirety of the airline management system which includes the 7 other classes: passengers, staff, flight, scheduling, booking, revenue, and analytics.

- Revenue Management - Kobe

  - This class, revenue, will be responsible for tracking the total amount of money made and lost.

  - It will also be responsible for ticket pricing and transaction statuses.

- Analytics and Reporting - Kobe

  - This class, analytics, will be responsible for analyzing customer satisfaction through operational efficiency and performance metrics.

  - Through these reports, it will be able to suggest technical improvements for future flights.